Mark Rubin, Jahn Brodwin and Liz Kulik
from
FTI Schonbraun McCann Group

FTI Schonbraun McCann Group (SMG) offers an unsurpassed range of real estate and finance consultancy services for investment vehicles including real estate investment trusts (REITs), pension funds, private real estate companies, and investment banks. It offers tax structuring, due diligence, accounts auditing, and litigation support services. The company, founded in 1973, counts major property owners among its clients.

Jahn Brodwin is a Senior Managing Director at FTI Schonbraun McCann Group, and is based in New York City. Mr. Brodwin, with more than 25 years experience, is in charge of the firm's New York office and is part of the firm's Real Estate Advisory Group. He has earned a national reputation for guiding noteworthy transactions in the real estate and financial services industries and has assisted companies through public and private offerings.

Mark B. Rubin is a Senior Managing Director at FTI Schonbraun McCann Group and is based in New York City. Mr. Rubin is part of the firm's Private Client Advisory Group and leads its Private Client Tax & Advisory Services Practice overseeing service delivery to private enterprises, family businesses, family offices and high net worth executives. Mr. Rubin is a recognized leader in the field of advising multigenerational families regarding tax planning and, broadly speaking, their long-term wealth preservation.

Elizabeth Kulik is a Senior Managing Director at FTI Schonbraun McCann Group and is based in New York where she is part of the Real Estate Advisory Group and leads the firm's Strategy Group and Sustainability practices. With over 30 years experience in national and international real estate operating, investment, technology and service companies, she is widely regarded as an innovator in the business community and real estate industry. Ms. Kulik is dedicated to the principle that real estate can significantly enhance enterprise value through use and investment.
